The Organiser reserves the right to verify participation conditions at each stage of the Competition. Disqualification may also occur after the Competition has been resolved – if a breach of these Rules is established after resolution – in which case it is possible in particular to revoke the right to the prize for the Participant who breached the conditions of the Rules.

§ 4 COPYRIGHT AND IMAGE RIGHTS

1. Submission of the Competition Task constituting a work within the meaning of the Act of 4 February 1994 on Copyright and Related Rights (hereinafter: the "Work") constitutes the grant to the Organiser and Sponsor of a free, non-exclusive, territorially unrestricted licence authorising the Organiser and Sponsor to use the Work and related rights to the videogram and the artistic performances contained therein, for the duration of the Competition and for a period of 8 years after its completion, in particular on the following fields of exploitation: fixation and reproduction on the Internet, in particular unlimited dissemination on the Internet – in particular but not exclusively on the websites of the Organiser or Sponsor, storage in computer memory, public performance, display, screening, broadcasting and retransmission on the Internet (including in social media). The Organiser and Sponsor are not obliged to disseminate or use the Competition Tasks.

2. The Participant declares that the Competition Task they have performed is their own work (i.e. the Participant is its sole author) and that it does not infringe any rights, including personal rights or copyright (including related rights to artistic performances contained in the videogram), and declares that they are entitled to dispose of all elements of the Competition Task, including any musical accompaniment (in particular the Participant undertakes to use free media libraries available on the relevant platform or their own music).
3. Upon submission of the Competition Task, the Participant grants the Organiser and Sponsor a non-exclusive and territorially unrestricted authorisation to exercise derivative copyright in respect of the Work. This authorisation encompasses the right of the Organiser to:
 - a) adapt the Work, including abbreviating, summarising, making alterations, adaptations, modifications and combining it with other works;
 - b) translate the Work into any language;
 - c) use and dispose of the resulting adaptations on all fields of exploitation listed in these Rules.

The Organiser has the right to transfer the authorisation referred to above to third parties (e.g. subcontractors, media partners) without the need to obtain a separate consent from the Participant. The Participant undertakes not to revoke the authorisation granted.

4. The Participant authorises the Organiser to make all changes, modifications, abbreviations and adaptations of the Work necessary for its exploitation, including in particular:
 - a. editing, combining with other recordings (video and audio),
 - b. adding subtitles, voiceover, logotypes and graphic elements,
 - c. changing the format, resolution and colour of the recording.

The Participant undertakes not to exercise the right of supervision over the manner in which the Organiser uses the Work. The Participant authorises the Organiser to decide on the first public release of the Work and the manner of attribution of authorship (e.g. in the post description or end credits) or to publish the Work anonymously (without identifying the author).

5. By virtue of the grant of licence and rights referred to above, the Participants shall not be entitled to remuneration or any other claims against the Organiser or Sponsor. In the case of Stage I and Stage II winners, the Participants shall not be entitled to any additional remuneration beyond the Prize in respect of the licence granted.
6. If the submission includes the image of the Participant, entry into the Competition simultaneously constitutes the Participant's consent granted to the Organiser to disseminate their image. If the Competition Task contains the image of a third person who does not constitute merely a detail of a whole such as an assembly, landscape or public event (in accordance with Article 81(2)(2) of the Act of 4 February 1994 on Copyright and Related Rights), entry into the Competition is equivalent to a declaration by the Participant that they have obtained that person's consent to the publication of their image by the Organiser.

7. The Participant consents to the free publication of the Competition Task by the Organiser. If a third party brings a claim against the Organiser in connection with an infringement of their rights, including copyright, the Participant undertakes to bear full civil liability in that regard.

§ 5 AWARDING OF PRIZES

1. All Entries that comply with the requirements of these Rules will be evaluated by the Competition Committee.
2. Stage I winners are selected by the Competition Committee composed of Joanna Sekuna, Maciej Komarczuk, Anna Wójcik, Anita Makowska, Witold Gedymin (hereinafter: the "Competition Committee"). The Competition Committee may award additional points in accordance with paragraph 5(c) below. The outcome is determined by the number of points awarded by the Competition Committee.
3. Stage II winners and their number are selected through voting on www.soleoglow.com with the participation of the Competition Committee (participants are allocated points for the number of votes received (50% of points) and points from the Committee (50% of points) – the outcome in Stage II is determined by the sum of these points). The Committee shall have the casting vote regarding the winners of a given Stage in the event of doubts as to the proper conduct of the voting.
4. In Stage II only one vote per IP address is permitted – in the event of more votes from a single address, the excess votes will be cancelled. Manipulation of the voting by Participants is prohibited, in particular through the use of automated mechanisms (including bots) that artificially increase the number of votes cast.
5. In evaluating the submitted Competition Tasks (and awarding points to individual entries) the Committee will be guided by the following criteria:
 - a. Compliance with the theme and Rules of the Competition;
 - b. Artistic value, creativity, inventiveness, originality and promotional value.
 - c. Regardless of the above criteria and the fulfilment of formal conditions, the Committee may award additional points for:
 - use of Soleo brand products in the material,
 - use of official Soleo promotional materials available at www.soleoglow.com,
 - placing the link to the Landing Page in the profile bio,
 - publication on a minimum of 2 profiles/channels.
6. Participants whose Competition Tasks are positively evaluated by the Committee will qualify for Stage II, whereby a maximum of 150 Participants may qualify for Stage II.
7. Announcement of Stage I Competition winners will take place by 23 April 2026. The announcement will be made via www.soleoglow.com.
8. Announcement of Stage II Competition winners will take place by 8 June 2026. The announcement will be made via www.soleoglow.com.
9. Participants whose Competition Tasks qualify for Stage II will receive the prize specified in §6(1)(1).
10. Participants whose Competition Tasks win Stage II of the Competition will receive the prize specified in §6(1)(2).

11. The final list of winners in accordance with these Rules is prepared by the Competition Committee, and the Committee's decisions are final within the procedure provided for in these Rules. This does not exclude or limit the Participant's right to pursue claims before a court on general terms. The Committee's opinions regarding individual Competition Tasks or Participants are not disclosed.

§ 6 PRIZES

1. The prizes in the Competition for the winners are:
 - 1) Stage I: Soleo cosmetic product set, being a set of Sponsor's products with a gross value of PLN 1,000.00

 - 2) Stage II – a four-day stay in a luxury hotel in Ibiza from 22 June 2026 to 25 June 2026 (hereinafter: the "Grand Prize")
2. The value of the Grand Prize depends on the Participant's country of origin and will be communicated to the Participant individually, due to travel costs and related logistical differences.

As of the date of awarding a prize with a value of up to PLN 2,000 gross, the Organiser will not withhold flat-rate income tax on the prize, as the Competition is announced and organised through mass media (the Internet). Accordingly, the prize in the Competition benefits from the income tax exemption provided for in Article 21(1)(68) of the Act of 26 July 1991 on Personal Income Tax.
6. In the case of a Prize with a value exceeding PLN 2,000, the Organiser provides an additional monetary prize equal to 11.11% of the value of the prize in the Competition, whereby this amount will be withheld by the Organiser and used to pay income tax on prizes to the relevant tax office. The Participant undertakes to cooperate with the Organiser regarding the settlement of tax obligations, in particular by providing the data required by law.
7. In the event that a business entity (a Participant acting on behalf of and for the benefit of a business entity) wins the Competition, that entity shall independently settle the tax due in respect of the prize received – in such case the additional monetary prize (11.11%) referred to in the preceding paragraph shall not apply.
8. The Participant does not bear the cost of air/coach tickets, but is required at their own expense to reach the airport/bus station indicated on the ticket received from the Organiser.

9. During the stay connected with winning Stage II of the Competition, the Sponsor will present brands belonging to it and will provide attractions for winners related to the stay at the designated venue, and during the stay the winners will be accompanied by camera operators and photographers who will document the course of the stay.
